Last weekend the Dano Driscoll memorial tournament took place in Churchcross. Ilen Rovers came out winners on the day with a one-point win over Clann Na Gael. Junior ladies player Anna Collins presented the medals on the day with Dano's family in attendance to present the cup to the winning team.

Each year people from across the Diocese of Cork and Ross gather at Gougane Barra to honour St Finbarr one of the Patrons of our Diocese This year, Gougane Sunday takes place today Sunday 27th September. For more than 1,400 years Gougane Barra has been a place of prayer and pilgrimage, associated with St Finbarr and the beginnings of the Christian story in Cork. Today it continues to be a special place where people come to pray, to give thanks and to seek God's blessing. Bishop Fintan Gavin invites people from parishes and faith communities throughout the Diocese to join together for this annual diocesan Mass and pilgrimage.

♣ 1:30pm: Confessions ♣ 2:30pm: Rosary ♣ 3:00pm: Mass celebrated by Bishop Fintan Gavin Everyone is welcome at Gougane Barra as we honour St Finbarr and pray together for our Diocese, our families, our parishes and faith communities, and for the pastoral year ahead.

Wedding bells in Lisheen Last Saturday.

The sun shone for Aisling and David as they exchanged vows amongst family and friends, wishing them a lifetime of happiness and may the Lord shine down on this next chapter in their lives together.

Make a Difference, Be that person

The message from this week's mass is "obedience shown through humble action and genuine repentance ". Saying yes to God with empty promises is not enough, true faith requires a changed heart and active obedience. Genuine repentance allows even the marginalized or those who have strayed to enter the kingdom of God ahead of the self-righteous.

The Nature of Humanity, its essence, is to feel another's pain as one's own, and to act to take that pain away. There is nobility in compassion, a beauty in empathy, a grace in forgiveness.

Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around. Be that person this week, be more aware of those around you and of what they may be going through, be the one that makes a difference no matter how big or small it may seem.
