MOTHER & FOAL: a gift to the parish
Adrian Nagle has kindly given his sculpture "Mother & Foal" to Union Hall Church, on a long-term loan (for as long as Fr Bernard is living in the Parish House). This installation, placed on the lawn near St Brigid's Church, depicts a mother and her foal, crafted from straw, concrete and wire.
Adrian describes it like this: 'The contrasting materials reflect the fragility and resilience of these animals as they navigate an ever-changing landscape. The bond between mother and foal symbolises protection, vulnerability and the enduring connection between animals and their environment.'
For more information, please see 'AdrianNagleArtist ' on Facebook. We are grateful for his kind gift to the church and thank God for the gift of art.
